Imagine, draw, and color a scene from Sleeping Beauty for the two dancers

Pas de deux (pah duh-duh) A dance for two. This is an example of ballet partnering. The woman is doing an arabesque penchée sur la pointe (a-ra-BESK pahn-SHAY sewr la pwent), a pose in which her standing leg is straight with the working leg lifted to maximum height. Her partner supports her as her torso leans well forward.
